

High Prey Drive Club

JANUARY

Lead Walking Skills For Calm

Start the year off by learning how to get that lead to be loose even if prey is around.

FEBRUARY

Have Calmer Walks

Get rid of unpredictability on your walks. Plus learn how to calm your overly aroused dog.

MARCH

Dealing With Your Guilt

Learn techniques to stop any guilt you may feel about not being able to let your dog run freely on walks.

APRIL

Impulse Control & Reliable Eating

This month is all about how to get impulse control in all situations AND how to make food rewards work!

MAY

Provide Great Prey Drive Outlets

May is all about giving outlets without the fear of making your dog's behaviour worse.

JUNE

Teach A Reliable Stop

If your dog does not respond to your cues reliably, June's content will show you how to fix that issue.

JULY

Easy Lead Walking Skills

Whether your problem is an over aroused dog or a fixated, planted dog, this will help.

AUGUST

Have Relaxed Walks

August will show you how to deal with your dog's arousal levels so that they are not overstimulated.

SEPTEMBER

Creating Your Dream Life

You'll get the skills you need to plan, take steps and live a brilliant life with your dog.

OCTOBER

Stillness Skills For Your Dog

How to use a go cue to help your dog love stillness and STOP them taking off if anything moves.

NOVEMBER

Provide Great Prey Drive Outlets

For dogs who chase, grab or hold and refuse to let go, learn how to safely provide outlets.

DECEMBER

Recalls For High Prey Drive

Recall problems are not your fault. You'll learn why here - and how to train a fabulous recall.
